

BOARD CHARTER

1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors of The SPAR Group Limited (the Company) acknowledges the need for a board charter as recommended in the King IV™ Code on Corporate Governance.

This board charter is also subject to:

- the provisions of the Companies Act 2008, as amended;
- the Companies Regulations, 2011;
- the Company's Memorandum of Incorporation (Mol);
- the JSE Listings Requirements; and
- any other applicable law or regulatory provision.

2. KING IV™™ CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE (King IV™)

King IV™ states that:

“the Board should ensure that its role, responsibilities, membership requirements and procedural conduct are documented in a charter, which it regularly reviews to guide its effective functioning”.¹

3. SCOPE

3.1 Membership

- 3.1.1 The Company shall not have less than eight directors, of which at least two shall be executive directors. Subject to the Companies Act and Listings Requirements, the shareholders of the Company may from time to time increase or decrease such minimum number of directors. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Group Financial Director shall be board members.
- 3.1.2 The Board shall comprise of a mix of executive, non-executive and independent non-executive members, most of whom should be independent and have the appropriate mix of knowledge, skills and experience, including the business, commercial and industry experience, needed to govern the Company.² Independent non-executive directors shall meet the independence criteria, as set out in King IV.
- 3.1.3 The Board should ensure that there is an appropriate balance of power and authority on the Board, such that no single individual or group of individuals can dominate the Board.

¹ Principle 6(2) of King IV™

² Principle 7(7)(a)&(b) of King IV™

- 3.1.4 Board members, its Chairman and a lead independent non-executive director³ are to be nominated through a formal process by the Nomination Committee to the Board for approval, and in accordance with the Board Appointment Policy, provided that all additional Board appointments are confirmed at the following Annual General Meeting (AGM).⁴
- 3.1.5 The roles of the Chairman and CEO shall be separate. The Chairman of the Board should ideally be an independent non-executive director, however in the event of the Chairman not being classified as independent, the Directors shall elect a Lead Independent Director.
- 3.1.6 The Chairman and Lead Independent Director of the Board should be elected annually for the ensuing year, at the last Board meeting of the financial year, on the recommendation of the Nominations Committee.
- 3.1.7 Non-executive members are appointed for a period of three years and can make themselves available for re-election at the AGM, in terms of the Company's MoI. The age limit for non-executive members is 70 years. Any term of service beyond nine years (e.g. three three-year terms) for a non-executive director shall be subject to a rigorous review to ensure the continued independence of the non-executive director.
- 3.1.8 The age limit for executive directors will be the normal retirement age of the relevant executive director in terms of the directors' condition of employment with the Company.
- 3.1.9 Members of the executive, senior management and external advisors may be invited to attend for all or part of the meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary to provide pertinent information and insights in their areas of responsibility.
- 3.1.10 A person is ineligible or disqualified to become a member of the Committee if such a person is ineligible or disqualified in terms of section 69 of the Companies Act.

3.2 Secretary

The Company Secretary of the Company is the Secretary to the Board.

3.3 Quorum and voting

- 3.3.1 The quorum requirement for a board meeting to begin is a majority of the board members, either personally or via electronic medium.⁵
- 3.3.2 Individuals in attendance at Committee meetings by invitation (i.e. invitees) may participate in discussions but do not form part of the quorum for Committee meetings or vote on any business transacted by the Committee.
- 3.3.3 Any business transacted by the board shall be approved by majority of the members in attendance at a meeting.
- 3.3.4 A resolution pursuant to achieving the objectives contained herein consented to by majority of the members shall be as effective for the purposes as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened, held and constituted.
